MOTION FOR ENLARGEMENT OF TIME

Defendants, The Stanley Works and American Express Company, hereby move the Court for an enlargement by thirty (30) days, until November 24, 2004, of the time within which Defendants will answer or move to the complaint.

For grounds, Defendants state that they have just recently retained their counsel, who require the additional time sought to analyze and respond or move to the complaint. This is the first enlargement of time sought by Defendants and the additional time will not prejudice plaintiffs in any way. Defendants sought a stipulation from plaintiffs' counsel, but plaintiffs' counsel were unable to poll their clients to get authority to consent. Nevertheless, plaintiffs' counsel do not find Defendants' request for additional time to be unreasonable.
